Crowd Burns Homes, Kicks Photographer to Death, Say Reports

BULLETIN

(By the Associated Press)
WEST FRANKFORD, Ill.—Although West Frankfort was quiet today after a night of wild rioting, Major Wilbur Satterfield in charge of militiamen here, this afternoon telegraphed Adj. Gen. Dickson for 500 additional troops. Maj. Satterfield expressed the belief that the rioting might be renewed at any moment.

(By the Associated Press)

WEST FRANKFORD, Ill.—Following a night of rioting in which persons are believed to have been killed and scores injured, comparative quiet was restored here today. Approximately 5,000 foreigners, against whom the rioters directed their attack, had left town and this coupled with the arrival of 150 militiamen of the Ninth Illinois Infantry, tended to bring about order.

The homes of many foreigners were fired, and the residents were clubbed and mauled as they emerged from the burning buildings to escape death by incineration.

Troops arrived shortly before 9 o'clock this morning. The militiamen were under command of Major W. E. Satterfield of Mount Vernon. The troops were stationed in sections of the town, principally inhabited by those of foreign birth, and instructed to protect the property abandoned by the fugitives.

Emphatic instructions that all crowds be dispersed immediately were given the militiamen. Witnesses to the rioting described that foreigners were beaten into insensibility by the infuriated mob. Many were stoned and trampled upon.

Several women were hit by flying missiles. It was said.

The trouble followed the finding of the bodies of two youths, Tony Borgnelli and Amiel Calcaterra, in a dry creek bed near Royalton. The youths had been heard to say they had knowledge of the identity of a head of men believed to have committed a number of robberies in southern Illinois recently. Their deaths it is believed followed a threat, they are reported to have made to divulge what they knew.

Many of those beaten were left in the streets and were picked up by relatives after the mob proceeded to other sections of the town.

Following formation of the mob, an ultimatum was served on Mayor Fox and Sheriff Watkins to leave town, or else give the rioters free rein. A press censorship was established so that news of the crimes could not be given the outside world. It was impossible to get any direct information of the disturbances until the rioting abated today.

Riot in Chicago.

CHICAGO—Extra deputy sheriffs were rushed to Chicago Heights today following reports of friction between white and negro factory workers. A number of fights occurred this morning, but no organized outbreak has been attempted. The village authorities have asked that state guardsmen be held in readiness for use in case of trouble. It is said, because negroes have moved into the village and rented homes.

Julia Faragher was denied a divorce yesterday by Judge Hoppmann in superior court on the grounds that the use of such words as "fool" and "crazy lunatic" by her husband, John Faragher, 931 Beacon st., do not constitute cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple have one son, Joseph, aged 6.

BEER FIGHT IS AGAIN OPENED

Seek Reconsideration by Supreme Court on Dry Decision

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—William D. Guthrie and Eliza Root, counsel for Christian Feigenspan, a brewer of Newark, N. J., today filed with the United States supreme court a petition for a reconsideration of the court's decision on June 7, sustaining the validity of the 18th amendment and parts of the Volstead enforcement act.

The petition contended that the amendment was designed to deal exclusively with intoxicating liquors. Mr. Feigenspan in his original suit sought to prove that beer of 2.75 percent alcoholic content was not intoxicating.

The latest petition pointed out the importance of the constitutional questions involved and declared that so far as the petitioner has been able to ascertain "there is no record of any important modern case involving such vital questions being disposed of by a court of final resort without explaining its conclusions."

The petition declared that the meaning and effect of such an amendment was necessarily the subject of discussion and concern in the forum of public opinion and the failure of the court to assign any reasons for its decision had tended naturally to invite criticism and create much public dissatisfaction.

AUTO SMASHED;
DRIVER NABBED

Bert Oaster is Charged With Operating Car While Drunk

The story of an alleged "joy ride" which resulted in the two front wheels of his Ford car being completely smashed was told in the sheriff's office of the county jail this morning by Bert Oaster, after he and a companion had been picked up by Sheriff Krug, who was summoned to the scene of the disaster at Summit at 8 o'clock this morning.

Oaster, Wald and two others, whose names are not yet known, were "just riding around" all night when a big touring car ran into them and never stopped, according to Oaster. Oaster and his friend were thrown out but not injured. Their other two companions had disappeared when the sheriff arrived.

Oaster was charged in superior court with operating an automobile while intoxicated. He pleaded not guilty and was remanded to the county jail until he had recovered from the effects of the liquor.

"If I'm drunk now, I'll be drunk all my life," he told Dist. Atty. Heilmann.

QUIZ FIVE
IN JOHN DOE
PROCEEDINGS

Subpoenaed to Special Investigation of Singer Mystery

ADVANCE NEW THEORY

Singer May Have Been Dragged to Quarry After Death, Belief

Redoubling their efforts to solve the mysterious death of Herman Singer, State st. barber, who was found in the stone quarry at Sunset Point, Sunday, Special Prosecutor Harry Sauthoff and Dist. Atty. Heilmann, together with the others assisting in the case, continued to hold John Doe proceedings behind closed doors all through the day.

Among those examined behind closed doors this morning were Fred and Henry Gerke, brothers-in-law of the dead man. In addition, two women, whose names were not made public, were examined, but only to ascertain whether they had seen Singer at Sunset Point at any time during that week. They had been picking berries at the point for several days, but not later than the Tuesday before Singer met his death. Both declared that they had not seen him.

One additional witness, a man, was questioned and it is believed that he may be able to furnish material aid to the investigators. He is under no suspicion himself. Mr. Sauthoff declared this afternoon.

The mysteries of the case continue to puzzle the authorities, who have as yet been unable to lay their hands upon any clue which seems to lead to the solution. Mr. Sauthoff stated this morning that the suicide theory had not been entirely abandoned.

As the result of the conference of city and county officials yesterday afternoon, Mr. Sauthoff has been retained as special investigator, working with Dist. Atty. Heilmann. Assisting them will be Detective Jesse E. Smith of the city police force, and Under Sheriff McCormick, who is running for sheriff.

Mr. Sauthoff spent half the night trailing down rumors that are floating about town now, and appeared at the courthouse at 9 o'clock this morning. He declared this morning that he believed John Doe proceedings, by which witnesses tell their stories under oath, to be the quickest and best method of examination in this sort of a case.

The theory that Singer was slain at a distance from Sunset Point quarry and that the body was dragged there during the night has been advanced, and while sensational, would account for all of the circumstances, something that no other theory has done.

Had this been done, it is possible that the many confusions on Singer's legs might have been gained by his murderer dragging the body over the stony ground to a point which the murderer believed close to the base of the cliff. The wounds on the head and the blood stains on the ground might be accounted for in this theory, by the supposition that the murderer struck Singer several blows to heighten the indication that he had fallen from the height.

IRISH BILL STIRS HEATED FIGHT IN
HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON—In an exciting scene in the House of Commons this afternoon during discussion of the government's bill for restoration of order in Ireland, Joseph Devlin, nationalist member from Belfast, was suspended and sent from the house. He was followed on his departure by other nationalists, a great majority of the Labor party and some of the independent Liberals, amid the jeers of members supporting the ministry. Mr. Devlin had delivered a speech denouncing the proceedings as "Sham and humbug." He was called to order for irrelevance, but declined to resume his seat.

The house was sitting as a committee at the time and the speaker was absent. The speaker was summoned and Mr. Devlin's suspension was moved and carried by a vote of 229 to 43. The speaker then asked him to leave the house.

Barrymore Weds
Actor Marries Mrs. Leonard
Thomas, Poetess, in New York.

NEW YORK—John Barrymore and Mrs. Leonard M. Thomas were married yesterday in the apartment of Mrs. John McCulloch in the Ritz-Carlton hotel. The ceremony was performed in the presence only of the immediate relatives of Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Barrymore. The Rev. Dr. Bullard was the clergyman.

Practically none of the friends of Mrs. Thomas or Mr. Barrymore knew of the marriage.

Mrs. Thomas is well known in New York society. She is the former Miss Blanche Oelrichs.

She was married in 1910 to Leonard M. Thomas and was hailed as one of the most beautiful young women in society. Paul Heliou, the French etcher, bestowed upon her the title of "America's most beautiful woman."

In April of the present year it became known that Mrs. Thomas had several months previously obtained a divorce from her husband in Paris.

Mrs. Thomas won considerable notice by her poems. She wrote under the nom de plume of "Michael Strange." Her productions have been the subject of "poems of passion" type.

Mr. Barrymore recently returned from a New Jersey resort where he went to recuperate after a physical breakdown. After a long session with his brother, Lionel, in "The Jest," he appeared last spring in a revival of "Richard III," and shortly after the play had started on a successful run he was forced to give up his work.

150 HENS PAY
FOR AN AUTO

E. L. Wiswall, Madison, in Address to State Poultry Men

How 150 hens paid for a Ford was related to some 500 delegates to the Wisconsin Poultry Breeders' association, which is meeting at the agricultural chemistry building of the university, this morning by E. L. Wiswall, 2012 Keyes ave.

Mr. Wiswall, who has a model chicken house and run on a small lot at the back of his home on Keyes ave., told interestingly of how he made the hens pay for themselves and for his Ford, too. Every chicken is labeled and the trap system of nests is used, so that perfect count of each hen's eggs can be kept. Mr. Wiswall has an extensive trade among his neighbors, who are more than anxious to purchase from him. By this system he is also able to tell when it ceases being profitable to keep a hen.

J. W. Kinghorn of the United States department of agriculture spoke on The Government Poultry Work, What It Has Done for Poultry Keepers.

Prof. E. B. Hart of the agricultural chemistry department discussed Beg Weakness in Baby Chicks, and J. M. Coyner on Organizing a County for Poultry. A demonstration of pedigree hatching methods will close the convention.

The afternoon program included speeches by W. E. James of the James Manufacturing Co. in Putting the Meat into Poultry Meetings; George W. Hackett of Kansas City federal district club leader, on Poultry Keeping on a Business Basis; Dr. L. J. Cole of the university genetics department, on Important Problems in Breeding; and E. L. Luther, superintendent of farmers' institutes, on Why Poultry in Wisconsin? The young Waterloo boys will give a demonstration of incubation and brooding.

Following the afternoon program the association made an inspection trip to the Certified Egg farm, and the farms of J. J. Flad and J. H. Durfee.

INVESTIGATE ROBBERY OF MAIL TRAIN

Believe Thieves on Madison-Baraboo Train Had Key

SEALS NOT BROKEN

Inspector From Milwaukee Here to Aid in Investigation

Postal inspectors, from the Milwaukee office were called to Madison on Thursday to assist in investigating a daring mail car robbery, staged early Thursday morning on the Northwestern road between Baraboo and Madison.

While the robbers executed the rifling with the utmost neatness and made a clean escape, the fact that their plunder was not large is attributed solely to the accident that there was no registered mail in the car.

Inspection at Baraboo had revealed the car in first class condition and nothing to excite suspicion.

Seals on the side doors were still unbroken at Madison, which led to the belief that the robbers had entered through one of the end doors.

Thoroughness with which the contents of the pouches had been gone over indicated that more than one person had taken part in the looting, according to inspectors.

Lost entailed by the burglary would probably be small, postal officials declared.

R. M. Bates, chief inspector at the Milwaukee office, was summoned to Madison to assist Inspector Esch in his investigation of the affair. The fact that there were no marks to indicate that the doors had been forced led to the belief that the robbers had possessed a key to the lock.

FEAR RENEWED
DENVER RIOTS

2 Killed, 35 Hurt Last Night; Fear Second Strike Clash

(By the Associated Press)

DENVER, Colo.—Fear that rioting by street car strikers, their sympathizers and strike-breakers, which last night resulted in the death of two and injury of 34 persons, would be resumed, was expressed in official circles today. Citizens today were responding to a proclamation issued by Mayor Bailey calling for 2,000 volunteers for patrol duty. The police were helpless last night before the mob which proceeded on its journey of destruction until it tired itself out.

Reports from hospitals today indicated the injured were making progress and most of them probably will recover.

The mob, which earlier in the morning remained around the tramway building, had dispersed.

Strike-breakers at the South Denver car barns today were patrolling the yard in front of the barns with rifles on their shoulders. One hundred and fifty strike-breakers were housed in these barns, which the mob set on fire last night, and where the two fatalities occurred.

Mayor Bailey this afternoon issued a proclamation ordering all theaters to close at 7 o'clock tonight. The police department has requested citizens to remain at home tonight in the hope of preventing recurrence of rioting.

TO OUR READERS:

IT IS now nearly three years since The Capital Times was started,—started by a few men who had faith in an idea that a people's paper in the Wisconsin state capitol could be made to succeed.

Our readers know of the fight The Capital Times had to make against its enemies who sought to put every obstacle in the way of the success of this paper. These obstacles were overcome and today The Capital Times is stronger than ever,—strong because it has won the confidence of thousands of common people who believe that it is THEIR paper.

The Capital Times, however, is facing new obstacles. Newspapers throughout the country are fighting against increases in costs unparalleled in the history of the business. Print paper has increased 300 percent in a year. The print paper situation has become so serious that hundreds of papers throughout the country have been compelled to quit.

The Capital Times does not propose to QUIT.

We believe that our readers appreciate the present situation. Our readers know that The Capital Times has no angel and it has no big financial backers who will "dig down" whenever called upon.

Today, therefore we are placing the problem before our readers. We cannot, as a matter of good business, longer continue to send our paper through the mails at the present rates. Print paper, mailing charges and circulation expenses on each subscription are now more than we receive for the paper at the present rate.

Effective Sept. 1, the price of The Capital Times by mail will be increased from $4 to $5 in the state and from $4 to $6 outside the state. It is necessary to make a larger charge outside of the state because of the increased mailing charges.

The Capital Times will, however, give its readers an opportunity to renew at the old rate before Sept. 1. All renewals received before Sept. 1 will be received at the old price. Those whose subscriptions expire after Sept. 1 can take advantage of this offer and have their subscriptions extended at the old rate by sending in the money before Sept. 1. FILL OUT THE COUPON BELOW AND SEND IT IN BEFORE SEPT. 1.

MILK BOOST
PROBLEMATIC

Kennedy Co. Won't Raise if It Can Be Avoided, Statement

Whether there will be another boost in the price of milk and cream in the near future is problematical, according to information from the Kennedy Dairy Co. this afternoon.

"We are not going to raise the price if we can help it," the manager declared, "but it depends on what we will have to pay for it. We would rather compromise a little than raise the price again, but we may be forced to do it nevertheless."

Milk now sells for 13 cents a quart, 7 cents a pint if sold cash, and 7½ cents if charged.

A raise of one cent per quart was made this week by Chicago milk companies.

WHITE HOUSE
CONFERENCE IS CALLED

Polish Situation is Discussed, Say Reports in Washington

CLOSE IN ON WARSAW

Bug River is Crossed; U. S. Aviators Will Help Defend Capital

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON—Secretary Colby and Under-Secretary Davis of the state department had a long conference today with Pres. Wilson at the white house. It was understood that the Polish situation was discussed.

Neither Mr. Colby nor Mr. Davis would discuss the conference nor would they say that the Polish situation had been discussed. The meeting between the state department officers and the president took place in Mr. Wilson's study in the white house and lasted for more than an hour.

Soviet Russia is in possession of sufficient munitions to carry on for five years warfare on the scale of that now being conducted against Poland, according to estimates made here today by military authorities. Practically all of the stocks on hand are from supplies furnished by the allied governments to the old Russian regime during the world war.

LONDON—Leo Kameneff, of the Russian soviet delegation here, sent Premier Lloyd George last night a long communication, giving the soviet government answer to Great Britain's note on Tuesday with regard to the delay in the armistice negotiations between Russia and Poland.

M. Kameneff's statement declares the soviet government never desired to combine the negotiations for an armistice with negotiations for peace, but that it demands that the terms of the armistice include reasonable guarantees which would prevent attempts on the part of Poland to see the period of the armistice for the renewal of hostile acts.

The sole obstacle in the way of the beginning of negotiations for the suspension of military operations, says the note, is the absence of the Polish delegates, whose return is being awaited by the representatives of the soviet government in order that negotiations may be immediately opened.

English Consider Note.

LONDON—Today's cabinet meeting, at which the Russian reply to the British note on Poland was considered, was followed by no official indication of the trend of affairs. The best information, however, was that Great Britain would accept the soviet reply, notwithstanding that it is not wholly satisfactory. This afternoon Leo Kameneff, and Leonid Krasin, with several others of the soviet delegation here, held a conference with Premier Lloyd George.

Americans Transferred
WARSAW—Owing to the desperate situation on the front nearest Warsaw, the Kosciuszko squadron, the air force composed for the most part of Americans, attached to the Polish army, is being transferred from the southern front. The squadron will aid in the defense of the Polish capital. The American consulate in Warsaw will be closed Friday. The American legation here is prepared to close within a very few days.

Defensive Line Pierced
WARSAW—The defensive line east of Warsaw has been pierced in several places, according to reports from the front. Preparations have been begun for transferring the government, if that move is necessitated by the Russian advance. The officials, however, still hope the soviet forces will be checked somewhere east of Vistula.

No announcement has been made as to what place the government would move to, but it is reported it would be Posen or Szeszocowa, 142 miles southwest of Warsaw.

Word from the front shows the bolsheviks forcing crossings of the Bug in a number of places. At one point the soviet troops are reported to have crossed the river in large numbers.

SICK FROM SULPHUR
POND DU LAC—The most general fumigation ever received by Pond du Lac came when housewives started to cook dinner after the gas company had made "gas" from a car of Illinois coal, which proved so rich in sulphur that the fumes made many women sick. Printing office and other establishments where gas is used had to run short-handed, many men and women employees being excused on account of sickness.

WANTED TO SEE WRECK; PUT TIES ON CAR TRACKS

This is Plea of Boys in Racine; Accident Narrowly Averted

RACINE—"We did it to see the train run off the track, and have some fun." That was the excuse given by Henry Weber, Gottlieb Altermatt, Henry and Edward Ehler, all about 16 years of age, for placing a number of ties on the southbound track of the Chicago, Milwaukee and North Shore Electric line. The four boys were arrested. The obstruction, eight railroad ties, had been placed just beyond a sharp curve. A section hand discovered the obstruction and, knowing the limited train was due, ran ahead and flagged it. The train was brought to a stop six feet from the obstruction.

LET AMERICA DECIDE ON WAR

Harding Against Foreign Nations Summoning U. S. to Battle

(By the Associated Press) MARION, Ohio.—A plea that future questions of peace and war be decided by the nation's conscience and not by any counsel of foreign powers was voiced by Sen. Harding in a talk to Spanish war veterans here in reunion. "Here in America," he said, "they do not want a council of foreign powers to summon the sons of America to battle." The talk was made in response to demands of the veterans, when the senator and Mrs. Harding accepted an invitation to be the regiment's guest of honor.

ONE CENT SPENT PER CAPITA ON BADGER HEALTH

Four Times as Much Goes to Conserve Fish and Forests, Report

Many hints to school boards and teachers are presented in "Keeping the School Child Well," an outline prepared by Miss Gladys Stillman of the home economics department of the University of Wisconsin for the use of the Wisconsin Home-makers' clubs. She makes these points: "In 1916 Wisconsin spent $230,912 for the conservation of fish, game, parks, and forests but only about one-fourth as much for means of improving the health of the people of the state. In 1918 Wisconsin spent only one cent per person for this purpose."

CARAVAN TRIP OF BADGER DESCRIBED

"Reminiscences of the Far West and Other Trips," is the title of a journal, by Edward E. Ayer, of Chicago, a native of Kenosha, Wis., and famous collector of Indian lore, a copy of which has just been presented to the Wisconsin State Historical library. The journal describes Mr. Ayer's caravan-trip to California at the age of 18. Mr. Ayer's collection of works on the American Indian, now in the Newberry library of Chicago, is the most important of its kind in existence. When the Civil war broke out, Mr. Ayer was the first man on the Pacific coast to be mustered into the service of the United States and while he was stationed on the frontier of the Southwestern plains, his interest in historical lore was awakened by Prescott's "Conquest of Mexico."

REGENTS' PICTURES SOUGHT BY U. W.

To complete the collection of pictures of the 200 former Regents of the University of Wisconsin, which has been made during the past year, M. E. McCaffrey, secretary of the Regents, needs but four more portraits. Pictures of the following men are lacking: Godfrey Aigner, publisher of the Milwaukee Banner; Wisconsin pioneer German paper; Alexander T. Gray, secretary of the state of Wisconsin in the '50s; Hiram A. Wright, lawyer and superintendent of public instruction; and Thomas W. Sutherland, first secretary of the State Historical society.

Because of This Woman Four Men Have Lost Their Lives

WICHITA, Kan.—Homer S. Wilson, who the police charge his wife shot and killed near Winfield, Kan., on July 25, was famous as a liar, thriver. He had appeared in many cities throughout the country, for he was chief of the cowboys with the 101 Ranch Wild West show.

Mrs. Wilson, now in the county jail at Winfield, is a pretty, dark haired woman with Indian blood in her veins, it is said. She is accused of shooting Wilson during a quarrel over which of them was to drive their automobile while they were returning to Winfield from a cattle buying trip. Two men who were in the car have testified to this.

Wilson was the fourth man to meet a violent death while closely associated with Mrs. Wilson. Charles West, her first husband, was shot and killed from ambush near Tahlequah, capital of the Cherokee Nation, about six years ago. Next, Frank Anthony, foreman of Mrs. Wilson's ranch at Tahlequah, was shot by Wilson, who, returning from the war, declared his wife complained to him that young Anthony had insulted her. Almost at the same moment, Wilson killed William Anthony, Frank's father, as he reached for the pistol his son had dropped. Popular sympathy was altogether with Wilson, the business men of Winfield raising $1,000 to defend him. He was acquitted under the "unwritten law." His wife did not appear at the trial.

COAL SPEEDED TO NORTHWEST

Forecast 20,000,000 Tons by Nov. 1; Strike Caused Delay

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON.—Speeding up of the coal movement to the northwest sufficiently to enable delivery of 20,000,000 tons by Nov. 1, was forecast today by officials of the interstate commerce commission as a result of the return to material working condition of the bituminous mines in the central competitive field.

Movement of 4,000 cars a day carrying 200,000 tons of coal to lake ports for transshipment to the northwest was ordered July 26, but only 2,400 cars carrying about 120,000 tons a day have been moved. Plenty of cars have been available, officials said, but because of strikes production has been insufficient to maintain a daily movement of 4,000 cars.

APPOINTMENT OF DUDGEON TO POST BRINGS PROTEST

Aldermanic Members of Library Board Favor Milwaukeean

MILWAUKEE.—In a bitter controversy the aldermanic members of the public library board of trustees charged the other trustees with violation of the civil service laws and "railroading" their proceedings.

The charge in a resolution calling for an investigation said that the trustees knowingly violated the laws in selecting Matthew S. Dudgeon of Madison, as librarian to succeed the late Charles E. McLeneagan, from the civil service list.

The three aldermanic members of the board said the other trustees ignored Joseph Carrigan and Sam McKillip on the list of eligibles. Carrigan and McKillip have been in the library service more than 25 years and stood fourth and fifth on the list.

Dudgeon was third. The first two men from out of town were considered as having declined the position. The aldermen said that one of the local men should have been appointed instead of an out-of-town man.

Under the civil service law five points were added to Dudgeon's average in the civil service examinations making him the leader. The extra credits were for extraordinary service to the city, state or nation. Dudgeon served in the Spanish-American war.

The meeting ended with a motion to lay the matter over two weeks when the civil service commission will be called before the committee.

CITY IN BRIEF

Soldiers' Reunion—The Jefferson county civil war veterans will hold their annual reunion at Jefferson, Aug. 19, every old soldier of Dane, Rock and Waushara counties being urged to attend. W. O. Pietsch, department commander of the Jefferson County Old Soldiers' association, will be the principal speaker.

In charge are Chief John Davis, Bill Davis, Jim Standing Water, Tom Walker, Henry Mike, Henry Smith, Jesse Little George, Wensel White Eagle and Bartley Fear.

Brader Need Not Pay—J. C. Brader, manager of the Washington avenue billiard hall, was released from liability for payment in the case brought against him by the National Cash Register Co. E. R. Elliott, now deceased, owner of the hall, had contracted for a cash register, but before it arrived sold the place to Grader. Judge Hoppmann ruled that because Brader had no part in giving security for payment of the machine and no part in the contract, the company shall recover from the Elliott estate.

APPLETON—Withdrawal of the order condemning the First district public school here and requiring the erection of a new building before Oct. 1, 1921, is expected to result from a visit of C. P. Cary, state superintendent of education, to the structure. Members of the school board protested against the condemnation order and invited Mr. Cary to make a personal inspection. He said, after going through the building, that it can be made to last many years if slight improvements are made. It was estimated that a new building would cost no less than $400,000, while the repairs can be made for less than $25,000.

STALWARTS FOR EARLY CLOSING

Try to Prevent Keeping Polls Open in Evening in Country Districts

In the last session of the legislature the progressive members secured an amendment to the election laws under which in country polling places the polls are to remain open from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m., unless a petition is signed by 20 voters, asking that the polls be closed not later than 5:30 p. m.

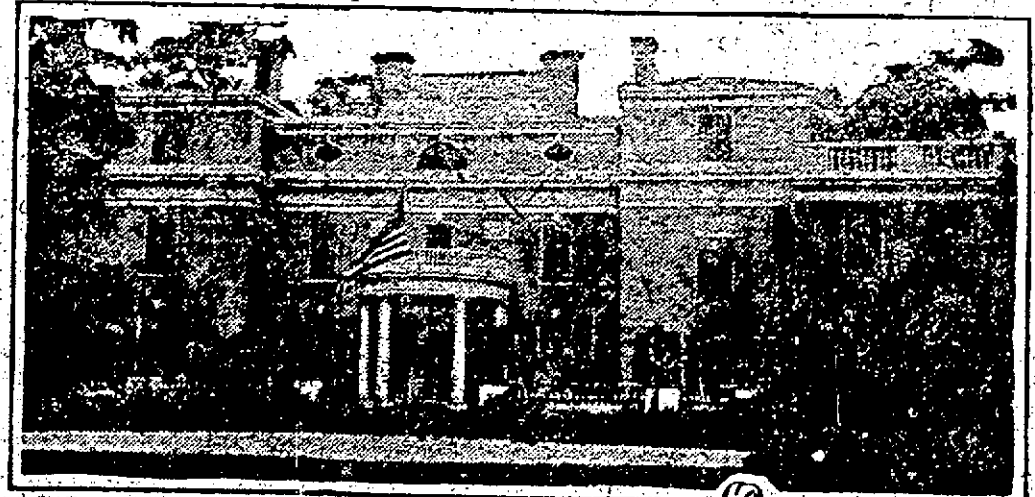

When the polls close early many farmers cannot vote. The law was amended in order to give farmers the chance to vote after doing their day's work. The progressives wanted to make the law mandatory, but the stalwarts refused to permit such a law to pass. Therefore the progressives had to consent to the amendment, under which a petition may close the polls at 5:30.

And now reports come that the stalwarts are beginning a campaign to secure early closing. In the town of Dunkirk in Dane county, a petition is being circulated by stalwarts providing for the closing of the polls at 5 p. m.

Both from La Follette headquarters and from Nonpartisan league headquarters warnings are going out to farmers not to sign these petitions. The stalwarts are trying to keep as many farmers as possible away from the polls, in the knowledge that this will benefit their cause. Farmers should insist that the polls be kept open until the legal hour of 8 p. m. in order that every farmer—and every farmer's wife, if the suffrage law is in effect by September 7—have a chance to vote.

And, furthermore, every farmer should get out and vote. Every farmer who stays at home casts a vote for the big business cause. It is only those farmers who get out and vote, and vote right, who are doing their bit to end

F. D. ROOSEVELT'S HOME HAS BEAUTIFUL FRONT PORCH, BUT HE SAYS NO CAMPAIGNING WILL BE DONE THERE

Front view of the F. D. Roosevelt home, and (below) the same house as viewed from the side.

Franklin D. Roosevelt has a beautiful home at Hyde Park, New York, but according to his present plans it will be a very quiet place until after the November elections, at least. There will be no campaigning from the front porch, says Roosevelt, as he plans an extensive speaking campaign.

The lower photo shows the original house, which was substantially built of stone. A large modern house, shown in the upper photo, has been built and the old home forms a wing of the newer building.

INTEREST IN SHORT STORIES UNIVERSAL

That interest in the writing of short stories is not only national but international is evidenced by the enrollment of a woman in London and another in Honolulu in the "Short Story Course," which has been conducted by the University of Wisconsin Extension division for several years. The course has a present enrollment of 24 students, of whom 10 are men.

Ambition to write is seen in all walks of life. A lawyer, a doctor, a commercial traveler, the secretary of a grain firm, the principal of a high school, and an engineer are the six men. The women are teachers, housewives, newspaper women, and others.

Think This Over!

If the enterprises and promotion schemes of the silver-tongued stock salesmen are as good as they would have you believe, why should they have to solicit this community to sell their stock? There are enough investors in the city where the project is located to buy all the stock if it were a good investment. The salesman has no interest in your welfare. He doesn't care to make YOU rich. He is just selling something. There's a difference between investing your money and "sinking it." Be careful!

SCHOOL BUDGET CAN BE ALTERED

Supt. Cary Has Power to Modify, Rules Atty. Olbrich

State Superintendent C. P. Cary can modify the budget which he submits to the State Board of education at his will without incurring any penalties. The only obligation resting upon him to follow his budget as approved by the state board is a moral one.

Following is an excerpt from the opinion of Deputy Atty. Gen. Olbrich to Secretary of State Merlino Hall today:

"The state board of education law, standing alone, clearly indicates that adherence to such budget is intended. Construed in connection with other statutes herein set forth, it appears that such obligation as there may be in the matter is not susceptible of legal enforcement. The question is thus left to the good faith and individual conscience of the agency involved in submitting its budget, and subsequent adherence thereto, within the scope of the legislative appropriation, is purely a matter of moral restraint and official discretion."

"If this conclusion suggests the possibility of abuse of such discretion and evasion of any ethical restraint in the matter, the sufficient answer is that it is within the power of the legislature to remedy the situation by making direct provision that no audit shall be made unless the pay roll submitted is in full conformity with the budget as approved. Or, it may in its discretion make detailed and specific appropriations of particular sums, and direct the manner of their expenditure. It is likewise suggested that the emergency board provided for in section 27.14 might well take all of these considerations into account in determining whether it should grant to any department or agency funds in addition to the regular appropriation."

Giolitti favors immediate resumption of most friendly relations with Germany.

WAREHOUSES IN STATE NEEDED

Markets Body Urges Potato Storage Houses to Relieve H. C. L.

The Division of Markets, in its fourth letter relative to the investigation of the high cost of living, points that an important reason for marked fluctuations of certain farm products is the lack of storage facilities. The division has conducted several hearings on the cost of production of potatoes and is preparing a report on the potato crop of 1919. Its investigations show that the fluctuations in prices of potatoes are largely the result of a lack of system in their methods of marketing.

Wisconsin is third in the United States in the production of potatoes. Fully 95 per cent of the commercial crop is destined for places outside of Wisconsin, of which about two-thirds leave the state by December first. During the season of high production when prices are low the crop is hurried out of Wisconsin. The result is that the consumer pays an unduly high price in certain seasons from which the farmer generally does not benefit because he sells most of his crop in the period of low prices.

The division considers this state of affairs points to shortcomings. The division believes that in order to remedy the situation potato warehouses should be established in the consuming centers, constructed and owned either by municipalities or by farmers' organizations. A large part of the Wisconsin crop should be moved during the producing season to these warehouses and stored there to be available for consumption in winter and in spring. The division invites suggestions on the part of the public on this plan.

ALGOMA TURNS OUT FOR "JIM"

Crowds Hear Thompson Speak in Kewaunee County

BY E. L. DEUSS
(Staff Correspondent The Capital Times)

GREEN BAY—Crowd aggregating 6,000 people heard James Thompson, progressive republican candidate for United States senator, in Kewaunee and Brown counties. Two speeches were made at Algoma, one to 600 farmers and business men at 10 o'clock and a special address to 500 workmen at noon, who cut short their noonday meals to hear him. There was no Leninist sentiment anywhere.

Great crowds turned out at Casco and Luxemburg. Mayor Elmer Hall, Green Bay, progressive candidate for secretary of state, again joined the party at De Pere and introduced Thompson to 4,000 at the corner of Georgia and Broadway sts. Several hundred came from Green Bay, not waiting for Thompson's address there, probably later in the campaign.

AUTO HORN SAVES VICTIM IN WRECK

PARIS, Ill.—Louis Mayhew, 23, of Detroit was killed and Eugene Nichols, aged 26, of Detroit, injured when their car plunged over a 12-foot embankment near Logan today and "turned turtle." In falling the button operating the automobile horn was depressed and the continued blast attracted a farmer, who rescued Nichols.

STARS TELL ALLEN GOV. COX WILL WIN

Theodore Allen.

Professional astrologers appear to be about equally divided in their predictions as to which candidate will win the presidential election this fall. Theodore Allen, who predicted both elections of Woodrow Wilson, says the stars tell him Cox will win, not only in 1920, but again in 1924.

Football Captain and Senior President Head List of Leaders in Student Affairs

Extra-curricular or "outside" activities are more highly organized at Wisconsin than at any other middle-western school. With thirty social fraternities, sixteen sororities, twenty-four honorary societies, five inter-fraternity and inter-sororities, nine professional fraternities, and between one hundred and one hundred and ten clubs and associations, student life has become rather complex.

It has become difficult to place a proper valuation upon the various activities and organizations. The positions listed below are considered the highest honors which students can win in activities.

Captain of the Football Team.
President of the Senior Class.
Editor and Business Manager of the Cardinal.

Editor and Business Manager of The Badger.
Chairman of Junior Prom.
President of the Student Senate.
Union Board, S. G. A. W. A. A.
President of Junior Class.
Vice-President of Senior and Junior Class.

LEAGUE DAILY WILL SOON BE PUBLISHED

The Minnesota Star, the daily paper being promoted by the organized farmers and workers of Minnesota, will begin publication on August 19. This is one of the first results of the money-raising program started by the farmers at the mass meeting in Minneapolis on July 7. It is believed the Daily Star will do more than anything else to bring victory to the farmer-labor forces in Minnesota in November.

One of the leading members of the editorial staff will be a Wisconsin man, Marion E. Hedges. While a member of the faculty of Beloit college Mr. Hedges wrote "The Iron City." The book was highly praised by reviewers, but as it sharply criticized big business it was assailed from big business quarters, and is understood to have led to Mr. Hedges' severing his connection with Beloit.

WHEAT TAKES SHARP ADVANCE

War Anxiety Causes Big Bullish Sentiment on Market

CHICAGO—Sharp new advances in the price of wheat resulted today from continued anxiety over the likelihood of war between Great Britain and Russia. Prolonged dry weather in the corn belt threatening serious crop damage, tended further to intensify bullish sentiment. On the other hand, reiterated assertions that the British Royal commission was still out of the market as a buyer of wheat had had no apparent influence as a check on the upturn in values. Opening prices, which ranged from 24c to 54c higher, with Dec. 2.43 to 2.45 and March 2.46 to 2.47, were followed by additional gains for December.

Subsequently the tenor of foreign news was construed as favorable to an armistice, and there was a quick setback in prices. The close was weak, 3/4c to 4c net lower with December 2.36 1/4 and March 2.38.

Corn.
 Bulls in corn made much of the fact that aside from the war scare and the unsatisfactory crop outlook, the daily receipts of corn were less than current requirements. After opening 1/4c to 3/4c higher, including Sept. at 1.43 1/2 to 1.51 and Dec. 1.23 to 1.29 1/4, the market continued to ascend.

Heavy speculative selling and considerable liquidation accompanied a sharp downturn in values later. The close was unsettled, 1/4c net lower to 1/2c gain, with Sept. 1.46 1/4 to 1.47 and Dec. 1.27 to 1.27 1/4.

Oats.
 Oats mounted with other grain, starting 1/4c to 1 1/2c up, Sept. 74 1/2 to 75 1/2c and later hardening still more.

Provisions.
 Higher quotations on hogs as well as on cereals lifted provisions. Buyers, however, were scarce.

STOCKS RALLY; MANY ORDERS

Steels, Oils and Equipments Lead Advance Today

NEW YORK—Buying orders flowed into the stock market and there was a substantial rally this morning. Steels, oils, equipments, leathers, shippings and investment railroads was advanced 1 to 2 1/2. Houston oil rising 5 points. The advance was soon checked by fresh outpouring of stocks which carried many shares to new low levels for the movement. Repogee fell 7 points and Baldwin and Bethlehem Steel were also conspicuously weak. This liquidation had an unsettling influence despite the efforts to support prices here and there and the spasmodic short covering. Foreign exchange rates were higher but European government obligations were mostly lower.

A drop of five to six points in Atlantic Gulf and United States Fruit influenced some profit-taking but the rise was resumed later. The closing was strong.

Tobacco Market In Wisconsin

EDGERTON, Wis.—Some activity has developed during the past couple weeks in the 1919 still in first hands. The prices have ranged from 18 to 25 cents, according to type. There is no stamped to get this tobacco, but within the range of these figures the balance still unsold will gradually find its way to the market. The assorting season is over. In Edgerton the Spitzner company, which has put in 30 weeks of lively work this season, expects to be through by the end of this week. On the whole the assorting and packing of last year's crop have been satisfactory. The wages have been good, and steady and experienced sorters have made good money. The tobacco packed may not be the best Wisconsin has produced, but it is a good crop, coming through the sweat in good shape and worthy of cordial reception by the manufacturers who need the Wisconsin leaf. The prospects of the 1920 stand depend on early rainfall. The first plantings are in bloom, and some fields have been topped. Remembering the history of last year, which resembled the conditions prevailing now, there is not much anxiety felt among the growers. Fields that looked like dead propositions the last week in July last year, before the rain of that week, followed by showers during the first week in August, developed heavy stands by harvest. The early tobacco this year needs rain now, and needs it badly, but when the rain comes, as it usually does about this time, there will be a cure for all misgivings. The tobacco is splendidly rooted, and has good color. The medium and late stand is all right yet; the worry about that it not now, but about the middle of September when the first frosts may visit us, and there will be much tobacco to harvest as late as that, as the prospects indicate at this stage of the game.

Our northern correspondent says Aug. 2: "Another week of dry weather has told on the tobacco stand. Some fields, in fact a large per cent of the early planting has spindled up. The medium planting is not so badly off. In Trempealeau county there has been no rain since July."

Light rain began to fall shortly after the noon hour Wednesday; the wind is variable with a falling barometer, indicating more rain.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK—The Water Street market which has had its interests in the domestic leaf field directed toward the Broadleaf offerings the past weeks, are now turning to the 1919 Wisconsin with considerable anticipation of what it may hold of new interest. But the real "at the bottom of the heart" feeling in the Street concerns itself with the attitude of the buyers to the 1920 crop soon to be ready for harvest. The Tobacco Leaf gives voice to this market heart throb in the following tip:

Conservative Water Street packers regard this as an opportune time to sound a warning to their more speculatively inclined trade contemporaries against early buying of the growing crop. Never was there a year, these packers point out, when there was less reason for buying in the field, and certainly never a year when such produce was so hazardous. The status of the money market and the tightening tendency manifested in all lines of industry are in themselves sufficient basis for this warning. But the various phases peculiar to the cigar industry at this time furnish even more potent reasons for the exercise of the extreme caution on the part of the leaf men.

The late planting of the 1920 crop naturally means the postponement of the harvest until the first half of September. The growing crop will consequently be subjected to too many hazards during the month of August, and the harvest time will be far too close to the frost line to make speculation on the growing crop even reasonably safe. Leaf costs and manufacturing costs, they say, have already mounted to such an altitude that any further boosting of leaf prices must constitute a dangerous menace, not only to the cigar manufacturing industry, but to the leaf trade as well, and any hasty action on the part of the leaf packers at this time would most surely result in still higher prices. "Sit tight" is the watchword of the most important operators in the domestic cigar leaf field, this year, and it is to be hoped that this warning will be heeded.

Money Couldn't Buy the Good Tanlac Did Her Says Milwaukee Woman

"Even if it was possible to sell the good Tanlac has done me, money simply couldn't buy it," declared Mrs. Jack Marcotte, well known resident of 513 Broadway, Milwaukee.

"For a long time my stomach was in such a terrible wretched condition it almost drove me to distraction. I had no appetite, and what little I did eat seemed to all ways sour and bloat me up with gas. I had an awful burning sensation in my stomach, and at times such dreadful cramps and pains I could hardly stand it. I often had sick headaches lasting for three or four days at a time, and would get so dizzy that everything seemed to be whirling around before my eyes. At night I could scarcely sleep, and I became so weak I couldn't even do my housework."

"I saw where Tanlac was helping so many other people that I decided to give it a trial in my case, and I could notice a big improvement before I had finished the very first bottle. Well, I have taken six bottles now, and my appetite is just grand. My stomach does not give me a particle of trouble, and I'm altogether free from headaches and dizziness. I've gained 15 pounds in weight, and at night I sleep like a child. Why, I simply feel like an entirely different person, and I'll never forget what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Madison by the Luckey Pharmacies, and in Mazomanie by Geo. A. Shields, in Mt. Horeb by C. C. Robertson, in Cambridge by Ole Bilstad, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

"NO BOBBED HAIR FOR ME," SAYS ACTRESS

Olive Ann Alcom.

Miss Olive Ann Alcom, the pretty actress who is taking the part of Mrs. Mannister in "The Long Arm of Mannister," says she does not care if bobbed hair is all the rage she is going to wear hers long, so there. The photograph is very good evidence of just why Miss Alcom made that decision. It would take a lot of courage to cut off such beautiful, long, thick locks and Miss Alcom says she is not afraid of snakes, or bees or burglars, but she just hasn't the courage to have her hair cut.

The Theta Delta Chi fraternity will give a dance at the lodge to-night as a close to the summer school activities. Thompson's orchestra will provide the music.

Over 200 couples attended the old-fashioned barn dance given at Bernard's park last night. Quantities of foliage and lanterns decorated the hall. Dancing lasted until 2 a. m. Among the unusual features of the evening was a prize waltz, judged by Miss Hazel West, dancing instructor at the Heibel Studio, and prize numbers drawn at the door, a box of candy going to each of the six lucky men and women. There will be another barn dance next Tuesday night. There will be a boxing match at Monona park Thursday night.

Masters Harold Hoebel, Roger Tenney and Frank Doyle have returned from Sturgeon Bay where they have been picking cherries. W. D. Tenney drove up in his car and brought the boys back.

Call it a "hunch," call it "luck," refer to it as "ouija board stuff"—the fact remains that we placed our orders for furs at exactly the right time—not a day too early, not a day too late. Late in April, prices on pelts dropped—consequently the market was stagnant—merchants and manufacturers were expecting still further declines.

But we bought on a large scale; and as it turned out prices on pelts took an upward turn, a strike in the fur industry tied up production.

And now, regardless of general scarcities, here are ample stocks. And here are prices that are rock bottom.

Are Women Naturally Despondent?

A prominent writer so claims. Women are constituted with a delicate organism and in nine cases out of ten mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, sleeplessness, backache, headaches, causing constant misery and as a result despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, is the one great remedy for this condition. It goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes despondency.—Adv.

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

When Billy heard Hans say that he did not wait for any more, but raised up on his hind feet. Fritz tried his best to hold him back, but he might as well have tried to hold the wind, and Billy, feeling the tug at his reins, gave a jump that toppled Fritz over backwards out of the cart. He gave one more jump and landed with all his might and main against poor, round Hans, and as his enemy went down Billy jumped on him and ran up one side of him and down the other side. Poor Hans got up and clasped both pudgy hands on his stomach.

"A thousand lightnings yet again!" he exclaimed as he looked sorrowfully at his print in the dust. Hans had been butted that time for Billy's mother, now Billy whirled and came back to give Hans one for himself, but this time Hans was too quick for him and dodged behind a tree, letting Billy butt the tree so hard that it stumped him, and before the fiery tempered goat could make up his mind what had happened to him, Caspar came running up and grabbed him by the horns. Billy had jerked away from Caspar, but he felt that the boy was now the best friend he had, and he did not want to hurt him, so he let Caspar pat him on his sleek sides and climb into the cart behind him. "You'll have to walk, Fritz," said Caspar loftily. "It takes a good strong boy to manage this goat."

Billy laughed at this, but when Caspar "clucked" for him to "get up," he trotted right along without making any fuss about it. At the next corner a carriage turned into the main street, and in it, on the seat back of the driver, were a man and a boy, the latter being of about Caspar's age. "Oh, papa, do look at that beautiful goat!" exclaimed the boy. "Please buy him for me, won't you?" Mr. Brown shook his head. "I don't mind your having a goat, Frank," he said, "but I can get you just as good a one when we get back to America. There is no use in carrying a goat clear across the ocean with us when there are so many at home."

"All right," said the boy, obediently, and the carriage drove on. Poor Billy! His heart sank. He had just heard from Hans that his mother was going to America, and he did hope that this fine looking man would buy him and take him there, so that he would have more chance to find his mother; but now his chance was gone. Was it though? He was not a goat to give up easily, and he made up his mind to try once more.

Billy stopped dead still to think it over. He simply could not bear to let this man get away without another trial, so suddenly he whirled, nearly upsetting the cart, and ran after the strangers. He soon caught up with them, and then, slowing down, he trotted along at the side of the carriage, showing off his beauty as much as he could.

(Billy keeps up his efforts to get to America.)

FOR THE TABLE
Stuffed Spanish Onions—Select onions of uniform size and scrape out as much of the centers as possible. To six onions allow one-quarter pound of salt pork. Chop this well with the portions of the onions which were removed. Cook in frying pan until brown; then add half pound of beef, chopped fine, one-quarter cup of nut meats, chopped, one-quarter cup of bread crumbs. Fry all until the meat is nearly done, then season with two teaspoons of salt, one-half teaspoon of pepper and a few grains of cayenne pepper.

Fill the onions with the mixture, sprinkle grated cheese on top, place in baking pan, pour a little boiling water around them, cover closely. Bake until tender, remove cover and brown. Make a gravy of the water in the pan, adding one teaspoon of butter or substitute and one-half teaspoon of Worcestershire sauce. Thicken slightly with flour. Pour the sauce around the onions.

Garnish with parsley. This is a real Spanish dish and is very good.
Codfish Balls with Tomato Sauce—When enough fish is left from dinner for fish balls cook an extra quantity of potatoes. Put fish and potatoes through the food chopper, add one beaten egg and stir all together. Form in balls, roll in flour and fry in a greased skillet. For the sauce take one-half cup of tomato soup (canned), one-half cup water, a dash of pepper and one-half teaspoon of salt, thickened with a tablespoon of flour. The rest of the can of soup be put in a bowl and used next day.

Beet Salad—Cook three medium beets, skin, cool, scoop out the inside and add one-half cup chopped cabbage and one-quarter cup diced celery; mix with mayonnaise, refill the beet shells; serve on shredded lettuce.

Harmless Confection—Children like candy, and a certain amount of sugar is required in their diet. Domino sugar flavored with peppermint, wintergreen or any pure extract, makes an excellent and harmless confection.

Fried Bananas—Cut a banana in halves, crosswise, then cut these pieces in halves, lengthwise; pat them in flour on both sides; then saute quickly in hot fat, first on one side and then on the other. Serve as soon as cooked. Bananas should be cooked quickly.

Hawaiian Custard—Spread slices of stale cake or cottage pudding thickly with grated pineapple. Put each slice in the individual dish in which it is to be served, and cover with cold boiled custard or cut the slices of stale cake with a round cutter. Place on each a slice of the sliced pineapple, drained from its own liquor and soaked in sherry. Cover with cold boiled custard and serve. Or the slices of cake may be moistened with sherry and the sliced pineapple cut into pieces and piled on the cake. Then the custard, to which has been added some of the pineapple juice from the can, may be served around the cake.

What can be the reason?

You failed to interest them and so they did not ask for another date. Why you were not interesting, I cannot say. Perhaps you are a pretty girl and rely upon your looks to fascinate people. Beauty is insipid if it is not backed up by intelligence. You must read and listen to conversations so that you will be well informed and can talk in an interesting manner.

It is probably unnecessary to caution you against "spooning." If you permit young men to make love to you, you will cheapen your name and they will not care for your company because they will not respect you.

"The Sins of St. Anthony"

— WITH —
BRYANT WASHBURN
In lovely woman's eyes he had seven deadly sins:
1. He lacked pep and he couldn't dance.
2. His wildest revel was a stroll in the park.
3. He wore square-toed gaiters and a celluloid collar.
4. His clothes shone instead of his shoes.
5. At a pink tea he was a blue funk.
6. He never pressed his trousers or a lady's hand.
7. All he knew of life he saw through a microscope.
So his sweetheart turned him down, and to cure his "sins" he turned to the chorus of "The Rajah's Pet Wife." Come and laugh till you're weak at Anthony's joyous "conversion."

MT. HOREB MAY CINCH PENNANT IN TRI-COUNTY

League Leaders Expected to Win Flag in Game at Edgerton Sunday; Locals
Play Sun Prairie

TRI-COUNTY GAMES SUNDAY
Madison at Sun Prairie.
Mt. Horeb at Edgerton.
Middleton at Waterville.
Lake Mills at Cambridge.

With but two more games for each club on the regular Tri-County league schedule, the eight teams will meet Sunday in four fast games, the results of which will go a long way toward deciding the final status of each club in the league standings. The most important game of the week is the Edgerton-Mt. Horeb game, which will be played at Edgerton.

By defeating Mt. Horeb, Edgerton can come to within a single game of the league leadership, and will be in a position to tie for the title by winning the next week if Mt. Horeb loses. Edgerton's chance to tie rests in the possibility of Mt. Horeb dropping two games while Edgerton wins two, and the chances of the Edgerton nine are considered rather slim. Most of the fans expect Mt. Horeb to win at Edgerton Sunday and so cinch the Tri-County pennant.

The Essers Market nine of Madison, which, after a brilliant start, lost five games in a row and is at present in fifth place, can climb up to third position by winning from Sun Prairie. The local team has been put through stiff practice and and every effort has been made to put a stop to the unexpected slump in the team's playing.

The standings of the clubs are:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Mt. Horeb	11	1	.916
Edgerton	9	3	.750
Sun Prairie	6	6	.500
Cambridge	6	6	.500
Madison	5	6	.455
Waterville	5	7	.416
Middleton	4	8	.330
Lake Mills	1	10	.091

Return of Meanwell Brings New Hopes To Badgers

BY LEONARD STEPHENS

The return of Dr. W. E. Meanwell to Wisconsin to become basketball coach and medical supervisor, is regarded as the biggest boost athletics has had for years. Practically everyone connected with the university is familiar with Dr. Meanwell's record as a coach when he was here before, and while he was at the University of Missouri. As four out of the five stars of last season will be here again the coming term it is thought that with these men as a nucleus, Dr. Meanwell will again repeat with a championship five.

"The return of Dr. Meanwell will be of great benefit to Wisconsin," said T. E. Jones, chairman of the department of Physical Education. "It will strengthen the staff of the department to such an extent that it will be hard to find its equal; it will add prestige to the course and be the cause of drawing many students that would go elsewhere. Dr. Meanwell is in my opinion the greatest basketball coach in the country. The Wisconsin team defeated the conference champions in the last game last season. Of the men that played in this game, four out of five will return. Judging from his record Dr. Meanwell will bring the conference championship to Wisconsin. Dr. Meanwell will act as medical supervisor of the department as well as basketball coach."

"The big point with me is that we will have in the person of Mr. Meanwell a man who understands the conditioning of athletes from the scientific standpoint," said Dean Goodnight. "Because he works from the physiological point of view his athletes are always in the pink of condition. I think I am safe in stating that while he was here before his teams never lost an overtime game. This means that his men were in the best of condition. He is undoubtedly a good basketball coach and we will have championship teams under him, but the big point with me is the fact that he will have medical supervision of all athletes."

"Dr. Meanwell was always particularly successful, and we are all glad to have him come back as coach and medical supervisor," said Professor Frye.

"It will not take long for me to express my opinion," said Prof. M.V.

Champ vs. Champ in State Tennis Tourney Today

MILWAUKEE—It will be champ vs. champ Friday afternoon when Abbie Weller of Milwaukee and Norton of Minneapolis mingle in the semi-final round of play for the championship of the Wisconsin Tennis Association on the Town club courts. The former player is present holder of the association title, while the latter has sought local tennis courts to add to his laurels already won in Minneapolis where the city tennis crown now adorns his brow.

Both players have shown exceptional ability at all angles of the game, and their masterly playing has brought them through the majority of previous rounds with ease. The other semi-final match, of no less interest, will bring together Benny Harrison, Washington park star, and Glen Maxon, Town club representative. The scintillating work of these two players has resulted in repeated comment.

Semi-finals in the men's doubles, ladies' singles, and consolation will also be staged on Friday, bringing the title play over to Saturday.

TEX FORMS OWN 8 2
NEW YORK—When Tex Rickard plays a trump card it is generally an ace, and last night he drew one out of a cold deck. Tex was host to most of the sporting writers of the city at the Biltmore hotel, and before he said "good night," he had drawn out in his typical manner the following announcements:

That he had declared war on the International Sporting club.

That he had begun the organization of the Madison Square Garden Sporting club.

That he will form a club at Madison Square Garden for professional athletes in every sport and make the garden their headquarters.

That he expected to own the new sporting club ultimately, and the garden outright, instead of controlling it on lease.

"Henceforth," he declared, "the International Sporting club probably will be my enemy, for I will run in opposition to it. My new club, the Madison Square Garden Sporting club, of which I will be president, will bring to this city the greatest boxers of the world for bouts."

EVANS ENTERS NATIONAL OPEN

NEW YORK—Chick Evans, one of the three amateurs who have won the national open golf championship and the only one who ever captured both the open and amateur title the same season, will compete in next week's fixture at the Inverness club, Toledo. It appears he had expected Inverness would enter him, but when the United States Golf association list was announced Wednesday and his name was missing, he immediately wired W. E. Underpool of New York, secretary of the governing body. His entry places him as the most formidable amateur who will play next week.

BELOIT AND MADISON ROTARIANS PLAY

Thirteen members of the Beloit Rotary club, who motored to Madison yesterday, played a round over the Maple Bluff Golf course after participating in the weekly luncheon of the local Rotarians at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday noon, contesting with members of the Madison organization.

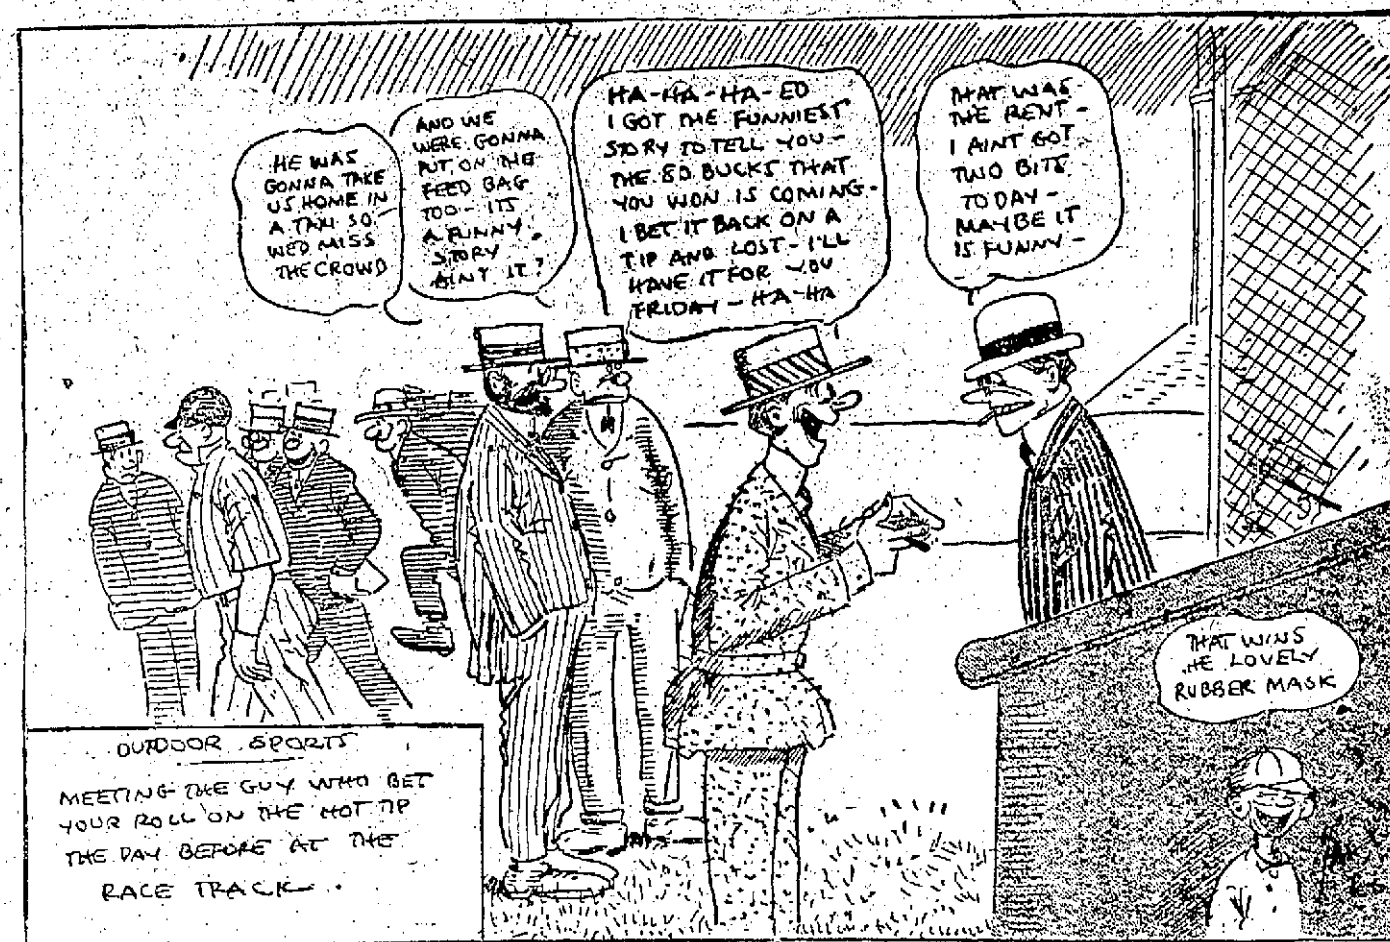

After dinner at the Madison club, they returned to Beloit last night.

O'Shea. "It is a very excellent thing to have Dr. Meanwell return to Wisconsin. He comes very close to being an ideal basketball coach. He is a good trainer, keeping his men in perfect condition, yet never over-training them. His addition to the staff of the department of Physical Education will give basketball a wholesome atmosphere."

In commenting on the outlook of college athletics, Walter Eckersall says in regard to the change at Wisconsin.

"That a successful college athletic year is anticipated at all the universities and colleges is shown by the manner in which the coaching staffs at the various institutions are being strengthened. An important change in the coaching staff will take place at Wisconsin. Dr. W. E. Meanwell, a former Badger mentor, will return to the Madison institution to coach basketball. Dr. Meanwell is considered one of the best basketball men in the country."

INDOOR SPORTS

HUTCHINSON IS TITLE WINNER

CHICAGO—Jock Hutchinson, of Glenview club, Chicago, on Thursday won the open golf championship of the Western Golf association at Olympia Fields club with a total of 296 strokes for the 72 holes, just one stroke under the score of Barnes of St. Louis, who held the title for three years.

Harry Hampton of Richmond, Va., despite an eight on the 495 yard tenth hole, and C. W. Hackey of Atlantic City tied with Barnes for second place. Hackey had to play backwards out of a gopher hole on the eighteenth fairway in the last round, but made the 420 yard hole in 4.

William Creavy, a young Kansas City professional, was next in the line with 298 strokes. Sixth prize went to Eddie Loos of Chicago, with 302, while George Carney of Chicago, with 304; J. J. O'Brien and E. Loeffler of Pittsburgh, with 306 each, and Larry Layton of Chicago, with 307, completed the 10 prize winners.

Leaders Erratic.

Scoring throughout the tournament was comparatively high and the play of the leaders was erratic, so that the winner was not decided until the last contestants had finished. James Barnes, who won the title twice with a record score of 286, took 83 for the first round of the longer of the two courses used. He redeemed his chances in the afternoon play of Wednesday by setting a record of 68 for the shorter course, four under par. He was two over par in Thursday's first nine and came home in one under perfect figures, but was still six strokes behind Hutchinson, who had scored 72-73-71 for his first three rounds.

The leader fell off in the last round, taking 80 for the short course, and had scarcely totaled his 296 when word came that Barnes was going well and needed only par on the last three holes to win. The St. Louis player reached the last tee with four strokes to the Hutchinson, who had taken 8 on that hole. Barnes drove 260 yards across a creek, but the ball rolled into a woods behind a stump.

Misses Long Putt.
From apparently an impossible lie Barnes sent the ball to the green and had an 18 foot putt for victory. He gave the ball plenty of chance to go down, but was an inch off the line and missed the five foot side hill second putt for a tie.

Hutchinson had given his competitors several chances to overtake him, getting into a trap on the sixteenth hole and taking eight strokes and trying his luck in a bush and a gully on the eighteenth. He has never won a title before, although he has made many course records in competition, including a 71 on the 6,576 yard course, bettering par by three strokes and the previous record by two strokes. He went over par on only two holes.

White Sox Lose to Boston; Cubs Drop Duel to Giants Ruth Rings Up Homer 39

Dodgers Lose to Pirates in Ten
Innings; Reds Take Game
From Phils; Browns
Trim Senators

THE Chicago White Sox showed the effects of the strenuous series just completed with Babe Ruth and his tribe of New York Yankees yesterday when they dropped a listless 4 to 2 game to the Boston Americans. Cicotte pitched and allowed one less hit than did Jones of the Red Sox, but a cluster of four safe blows in the third round counted three tallies for Boston and cinched the game. The Sox lacked punch and their fielding was ragged. They wasted several chances to score. They met Boston again today, and Claude Williams is primed to take the hill.

The Giants and the Cubs met yesterday at the Polo grounds in one of the old time Cub-Giant scraps. Hippo Vaughn opposed Big Jess Barnes and both were so good that batting averages on both clubs suffered. Hippo allowed four hits while Barnes allowed but two, but Hippo gave the best pitching exhibition as two of the hits made off him were flukes while the Bruins' hit total was kept down only by brilliant fielding. The Giants won, 2 to 1, when a Texas leaguer and an error by Deal were bunched with a fluke triple by Baneroff which Robertson misjudged.

Babe Ruth hit his 39th home run of the year yesterday against Pitcher Ehmkke of the Detroit Tigers. Ehmkke passed Ruth three times and during the afternoon put over just one ball in reach of Babe's bat. Babe clouted it out of the park. The Tigers won the game, 7 to 1, however, as Ehmkke allowed but five hits. Ty Cobb got three hits, including a double.

The Browns took a two to one game from the Senators when the Browns outthit and outplayed Washington. Three successive singles in the ninth scored the winning run off Pitcher Shaw.

The league leading Brooklyn Dodgers lost a 10 inning game to the Pirates yesterday. The score was tied three times up to the tenth when the Pirates bunched four hits off Grimes for three runs.

The Braves took a 1 to 0 pitching battle from the Cards yesterday. Old Doc Watson pitched a whale of a game for Boston, holding St. Louis to four scattered hits. Schupp was almost as good but let the winning run score in the second inning. It was Watson's fourth straight victory.

The Reds won a game yesterday just to see what the sensation might be like. They picked on the Phillies to pull their victory, and the cellar champs, with Hubbell pitching, could offer no effective opposition. The big league games were full of good pitching yesterday, but Luque of the Reds gave the best performance of all. He held the Phillies to three hits, and the Reds won 7 to 0.

ROUNDY'S RAZZBERRIES

I wish to inform the readers of this column that I made a mistake in regard to the raise that I said Pat Griffin did not get in the park. He received it last Jan. 1, so I wish to beg the pardon of your good friends, Mr. Bunn, city auditor, and Mike Quam, park superintendent.

A glance at league baseball shows you in the standings that Philadelphia is the foundation of baseball.

Shells are still landing in Antwerp but they're eight oared instead of eight men.

I suppose the English will keep on sending over Shamrocks until they run out of Roman numerals.

McGraw proves a man may be down and out but he is never out of the pennant race.

It looks as if the American league pitchers are going to walk the Yankees out of a pennant.

Vardon and Ray, the golfers, are now taking more cups than the Shamrock ever lost.

Connie Mack's kids won 7 games out of 9, which goes to show you there is something rotten in baseball.

Collin Kidd, Madison's golf instructor, at Maple Bluff, got cleaned at the western open golf meet yesterday. Did you see the score? It was no "Kidd."

Janesville may be a progressive city, all right, but have you seen the welcome they give you when you get off the train? There is a street car standing there and it reads, "To the Cemetery."

Sam Rice, of the Washington Americans, is the leading base stealer.

Who was captain of the Wisconsin football team when we played Michigan on old Randall field?

Hal Mahone Victor in Sweepstakes at Fort Miami Races

TOLEDO—Hal Mahone won the sweepstakes for 2:05 pacers after losing the first heat to John Henry while Great Britton won the Toledo Times 2:14 trot for 2 year olds, the features on Thursday's grand circuit racing card at the Fort Miami track.

Arion McKinney won his first race of the season on the grand circuit when he took the 2:12 trot, but four heats were necessary, as Letanna S. came through in the second heat and Waibut Frisco won the third race. The heat winners raced it off and Arion McKinney led all the way.

John Henry led all the way in the first heat of the 2:05 pace but Hal Mahone outpaced the son of Wilke in the next two heats beating him in the stretch drive.

Louis Grattan won over the favorite, Goldie Todd, in the 2:03 pace, in straight heats. The last quarter of the second heat was paced in 23 seconds.

Great Britton equaled the mark made by Day Star at Kalamazoo and now is tied for the fastest mile for 3 year olds.

"MUNICIPALITY"
MAGAZINE AGAIN

Report of Legislative Committee Features July
Number

After a year's suspension of activity because of printing difficulties, "The Municipality," monthly magazine of municipal affairs, published by the municipal information division of the University of Wisconsin Extension, has resumed publication with the July issue.

The report of the legislative committee of the League of Wisconsin Municipalities is the chief feature of the issue. F. H. Mac-Gowan, editor, says of the work accomplished by the legislative committee:

"Over 200 bills were introduced (into the legislature) which affected cities, and 15,000 copies of these bills were sent out to city officials interested. The work of the league was tremendously effective. It secured the passage of practically all the important bills which passed and defeated every important bill to which it was opposed.
In many instances the work of the league saved the cities of the state large amounts of money."

"The Motor Bus vs. the Street Car," in the same issue, is a discussion of the advantages of the motor bus as a solution of the traffic problem.

"IN THE NAME OF GOD START SOON"

THESE Nonpartisan League fellows are an inconsiderate lot. Just at a time when J. N. Tittmore is trying to cash in politically on his original snorting, death-defying opposition to the league The Wisconsin Leader, official publication of the league in Wisconsin, publishes two letters which Tittmore wrote urging the league to come into Wisconsin.

"In the name of God start soon" was the aching appeal that J. N. T. sent to the prairies of North Dakota before The Milwaukee Sentinel and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, Milwaukee, started to feed him sweet candy.

On Jan. 9, 1917 Tittmore sent the following letter to the league:

TITTMORE FARMS
R. D. NO. 77

Dear Sirs:

We are away behind N. Dakota! You are a wonderfully performing State! We are a talking State but we stick by "conservatism" which to me is synonymous with stultification. How do you organize your leagues? Have you by-laws, etc? Will you please write me fully and send on any literature or publications. I take the Co-op Herald. Sincerely yours J. N. TITTMORE

Non Partizan League,
Fargo, N. Dak.

The following is the reading of the above letter:

Gentlemen:
We are away behind N. Dakota! You are a wonderfully performing State! We are a talking State but we stick by "conservatism" which to me is synonymous with stultification. How do you organize your leagues? Have you by-laws, etc? Will you please write me fully and send on any literature or publications. I take the Co-op Herald. Sincerely yours J. N. TITTMORE

Non Partizan League,
Fargo, N. Dak.

J. N., however, became rather impatient at the slowness with which the league looked toward Wisconsin and under date of Jan. 30, 1917 he wrote the following letter:

TITTMORE FARMS
R. D. NO. 77

Dear Sirs:

Sometime ago I rec'd your letter but never the "Leaders" you said you would send. When will you tackle this State? In the name of God start soon. You will find a VERY REACTIONARY bunch of Equity leaders. They are fine men but afraid of their shadows. We are anxious to have brother A. C. Townley speak here. Can we hope to have him do it? We have more Grangers hereabouts than Equity members. Did you notice the freight rate victory we achieved here from a Washington Commissioner. It is a big partial but a good victory wedge. As brother Tank of Wisconsin calls it. Sincerely yours J. N. TITTMORE

The following is the reading of the above letter:

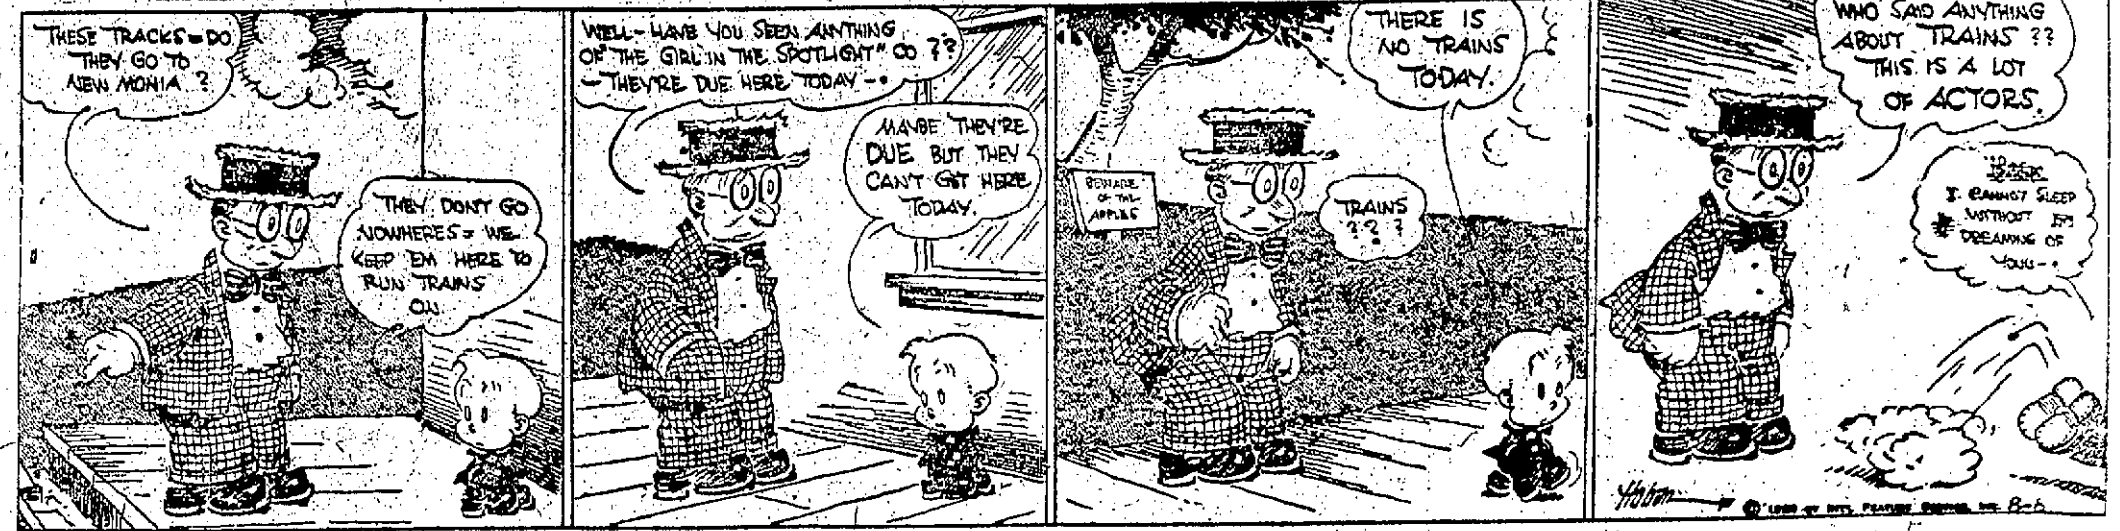

Dear Brothers:
Sometime ago I rec'd your letter but never the "Leaders" you said you would send. When will you tackle this State? In the name of God start soon. You will find a VERY REACTIONARY bunch of Equity leaders. They are fine men but afraid of their shadows. We are anxious to have brother A. C. Townley speak here. Can we hope to have him do it? As brother Tank of Wisconsin calls it. Sincerely yours J. N. TITTMORE

Non-partisan League,
Fargo, N. D.

"And now" Says The Wisconsin Leader "Tittmore who invited the league into Wisconsin, is howling just like any big business candidate about the socialism and disloyalty and class bitterness of the league."

What has happened since these letters were written? Why is Tittmore receiving so much praise at the hands of the Mil-

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES ASKED TO AID WAR OBJECTOR'S RELEASE

NEW YORK—The case of Benjamin Salmon, a conscientious objector on hunger strike since July 13 at the Fort Douglas, Utah, guard house, has been called to the attention of three presidential candidates by telegram from the American Civil Liberties Union, New York City.

Salmon, a Roman Catholic and Socialist, imprisoned for over two years, is on hunger strike in protest against the government's policy.

In a letter to Secretary of War Baker he states that he is on hunger strike for "liberty or death." Salmon's home is in Denver, where he has a wife and child.

Put Case Before Harding

The telegram to Senator Harding is as follows:

Senator Warren G. Harding, Marion, Ohio:

The war department is now holding in prison almost two years after armistice 47 conscientious objectors. Every other English speaking country has released them. One objector, Benjamin Salmon, Denver, a Roman Catholic and Socialist, has been on hunger strike since July 13 in the guard house, Fort Douglas, Utah. He has been imprisoned for two years. He is a determined man prepared to sacrifice himself in protest against the government's policy. Will you not make some statement to bring the issue presented to public attention?

American Civil Liberties Union.

The telegram to Gov. Cox asking him to use his influence with the administration to secure action, and that to Parley P. Christensen, asking him to make a public statement in view of his known stand against the government's present policy.

47 Still in Prison

The Civil Liberties union at the same time reported that the total number of conscientious objectors still-imprisoned has been reduced to 47 during July by the release on special order of Carlton C. Rodolf from the Alcatraz Island prison, San Francisco. Rodolf is a New York Socialist. Philip B. Grosser, Boston, also confined there, is expected to be released on special order shortly, as he has accepted work under military authority. Carl Haessler, the other remaining objector at Alcatraz Island, is due to be released in September. Haessler was formerly an instructor in the philosophy department of the University of Illinois. He is a Socialist.

The union reports that it has been advised by the war department that the sentence of Lester C. Ott, the only remaining objector at the Ft. Leavenworth military prison, has been further reduced to three years, which assures his release this fall. Ott was originally sentenced to be shot.

waukee Sentinel, Charlie Pfister's organ which defends all of the state profiteers? Why does the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association smile so sweetly on the head of an organization which it has always hated? Why do all the reactionary newspapers refer to Tittmore as a "safe and sane leader." Why is Tittmore indirectly attacking La Follette in this campaign?

Is it because the interests think they can use Tittmore to divide the progressive vote?

We do not feel that many farmers are going to be fooled on anything so transparent as that.

THERE is an announcement on Page 1 of this issue to which we wish to call the attention of our mail subscribers. Read it and act before Sept. 1 if you desire to save some money.

AT THE THEATERS

At the Fuller—Corrine Griffith appears as a vaudeville performer in "The Garter Girl," which will be shown at the Fuller theater on today. During the time her supporting company was being selected and the preliminary work done the star learned some trapeze acrobatics, which she introduces in the picture, and she brushed up on her stage dancing. This picture together with a new two reel comedy, "A Close Shave," featuring the cross-eyed comedian Ben Turpin, will be shown today and tomorrow.

At the Strand—"The Sins of St. Anthony," featuring Bryant Washburn is being shown at the Strand theater today and tomorrow for the last time. Bryant Washburn was practically a recluse for several weeks recently. It was all on account of his hair. Ordinarily the curly locks are neatly short. But in "The Sins of St. Anthony," the player, as a slovenly young scientist, was obliged to let his hair grow until it hung in tiny ringlets around his collar and was matted like rats' nests. As a special added attraction a Mack Sennett comedy, "Fresh from the City," will also be shown.

At the Grand—After an absence of more than a year, J. Warren Kerrigan returns to the Grand screen today in a romantic drama, Live Sparks. Neil Sparks was really a live wire but he had never had occasion to demonstrate that fact. Wealth had enabled him to take life easy. However, at heart, Neil was true blue, as the test proved when two oil speculators set about to acquire the Sparks oil interests in the south. Neil rose to the occasion and neatly turned the tables.

GATES TAKEN OUT

MANITOWOC—After over a year in which the Ridout Co. failed to make the "protection" gates at Eighth street bridge function properly, the council ordered the gates taken out. The company had a contract to make the gates function properly, or get no pay.

Michigan Takes First—Practice shooting of the small arms firing school over the 200, 600 and 800 yard ranges gave the Michigan team at Camp Perry, O., first place with a score of 141 out of a possible 150.

NEENAH—August 7 has been set as the date for the annual picnic of the United Commercial Travelers of the Fox River Valley to be held at Riverside park here.

Bryant Washburn in "The Sins of St. Anthony."

Corrine Griffith in "The Garter Girl."

On The Side

A LITTLE SLICE 'O' LIFE

We had often marvelled, At the greatness of Lincoln, But not until recently Had we heard it analyzed. A small child of our neighbor Was being told what a great man Abraham Lincoln was.

"Gee," he said, "It's no wonder. Look what he had to make him great. He had that log cabin, He had that pine knot, He had those rails to split, He had that tall plug hat, He had all those stories, He had that Douglas debate, He had that civil war to win, He had that Gettysburg speech, He had everything To make him great. And look what I have got— Not a darn one of those things."

A prominent porcelain bath-tub manufacturing house advertises as follows: "Don't wait until Saturday night."

There are apparently some new thoughts in the bath-tub business. It is a new idea they have evolved, but it may be worth trying.

BAD NEWS FOR ABIE THE AGENT

Headline in Sun-Herald: "Bolsheviks Have Captured Minsk."

About the only man who ever makes money by starting a suit is a tailor.

The meek are having a discouraging time trying to inherit the earth.

The human race is being killed off again. It is now groggy and is going fast, and the finger of Fate is about to dole out the fatal count of 10. The magazines are full of it. The only thing the scientists can't agree upon is just what is doing the killing.

In a manner of speaking, you can pay your money and take your choice, but the race which has been a tough old bird for a good many centuries is on the skids—you can be very sure of that.

For many years we heard this.
